

How to install Cycle Coffee & Cake Points of Interest on Garmin.

First my disclaimer - I have only tested this file on my Garmin Edge 1000 so I cannot vouch for whether it will work on other devices.

To install the file you need to be able to connect your Garmin device to a pc. I only know about Windows 10 so, again, I can't vouch for other pc's or operating systems.

Here we go then:

1. You need your Garmin, a computer connection cable and the Points of Interest (.gpi) file

You can find the file Cycle Coffee & Cake Stops.gpi here: >

<https://cafes.cyclingmaps.net/data/Garmin.gpi>

1. The link to download the file is in the centre of the screen or under the three dots (...) on pc.
2. Download and save the file to your pc.
3. Connect your Garmin to your pc. You will be able to see your device listed in Windows File Explorer. There will be a drive called Garmin Edge 1000 (x:) and if your Garmin has an SD Card installed, another called USB Drive (y:) (Drive letters will differ to these.)
4. In Windows File Explorer open USB Drive (y:) if you have one. If no SD Card open the Garmin Edge 1000 (x:) drive.
5. Now open the folder called "Garmin".
6. Having opened the Garmin folder create a new folder and name it POI. Do this by right clicking in the drive and then selecting New>Folder
7. Copy the file downloaded earlier into the new POI folder.
PLEASE DON'T COPY THE FILE TO ANY OTHER FOLDER ON YOUR GARMIN.
8. Safely remove your Garmin from your pc.
9. Now turn on your Garmin as usual.

Now to see if it's worked - remember I'm using the Edge 1000 so you might need a different sequence on other devices.

1. Press "Where To?"

2. Press "Search Tools"

3. Press "Extras"

4. This is the café list; hopefully it will look different to this as it should find cafes near your location. Press on the name of the café you want to navigate to.

5. The café name will appear at the top of the screen. If you press this you will find contact details for the café and some notes and website addresses if I have them. The café location will be shown by a “Pin” icon
